

A Mouldy Chestnut

You have all heard the story about the banker who refused to correct a mistake after the customer had left the Paying Teller's window. He had overpaid the customer, so the wise old cuss—tomer pocketed the money and walked out. It is told with variations everywhere, and never stops traveling. IT IS A MOULDY CHESTNUT. Banks want to transact business honestly, this bank in particular. This bank wants to correct mistakes and its entire force will work overtime and away on into the night to run down an error, and exact justice. If a mistake is made and you have been overpaid, we would like to have our money back. If we have not paid you in full it is coming to you and we are just as anxious that you should get it. The man behind the wicket desires your confidence, not your suspicion. The man who invented that chestnut story was a chump.

Man and Wife Take Meritone

Nashville Couple Says it Helped More than Anything Else

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keith, of 33 Charlott pike, Nashville, both say Meritone has helped them more than any other medicine they ever took.

"My kidneys were out of order for twenty years and kept getting worse all the time, but since taking one bottle of Meritone they are in better condition than I can ever remember," Mr. Keith said.

"My stomach was out of order also and I could hardly eat anything. My nerves were in bad shape so that I couldn't sleep right or get my rest."

"I've tried a lot of medicines, but this one bottle of Meritone has done me more good than all the rest of them put together. I eat and sleep fine now and my kidneys are in good condition."

"My wife is taking Meritone also and she says it has done her more good than any other medicine she ever took."

Thousands of people in many states are taking Meritone and highly recommend it for cases of stone, liver or kidney trouble, catarrh, rheumatism or other ailing conditions of the system.

Meritone is sold exclusively in Huntingdon by Patrick Drug Co.

R. F. Thomeson, whose home is in Oklahoma, is visiting his brother, J. W. Thomeson, of the Yuma community. Mr. Thomeson was reared in this county, but has been away about forty-five years. He was here Monday and spoke of incidents that occurred nearly fifty years ago, when the depot was near the West Paris street crossing.

The draining of Beaver creek is playing havoc with the fish. By seining and hogging the deep places where water remains in the creek fine fish are being caught. A large catfish was taken from a hollow log the first of the week that weighed over 40 pounds. A large quantity of smaller fish are being caught daily.

Evangelist L. J. Miller, of Nashville, is doing some fine preaching at the Methodist church. He only holds night services and is having good crowds. He is a forceful and interesting speaker, holds the closest attention of his audience and is accomplishing much good. The meeting will continue through Sunday and perhaps longer.

Allen S. Eason spent several days in Jackson last week as the representative of the local lodge to the state convention of the Knights of the Maccabees. He was honored by being elected as supreme alternate from Tennessee to the supreme convention to be held in Chicago next July, and also served as a member of the press committee of the state convention.

Miss Mary John Giles was hostess of a delightful dinner party recently at her mother's home west of town, complimenting the following overseas boys: James and Billie Churchwell, Arthur and Clifford Rust, Ben N. Jenkins and Leonard Merritt. The hostess was assisted by Misses Olive Giles, Leva Hickman, Margaret Jenkins and Nelle McCollum. The dining room was very inviting with its decorations of lilac and dogwood blossoms. The table had for a central ornament a huge bowl of lilac while suspended from the ceiling was a quaint old Indian basket filled with the same flowers. These boys were among the first volunteers to leave here and were given a hearty welcome on their return.

NO REST—NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Huntingdon people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

Mrs. Emma Finley, 1214 E. Paris St., Huntingdon. Says: "About four years ago I had a bad spell of the grip and after I recovered, my kidneys were in bad condition. My kidneys didn't act properly, I couldn't rest comfortably nights and there were swellings under my eyes. I seemed to have no energy to go about my work either. One of my neighbors advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got two boxes at Priest & Patterson's Drug Co., and took them as directed. It wasn't long before I got better and I gladly endorse this medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Finley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. T. C. Boone and children—Mrs. Robert Delew and daughter of Bradford, and Sam Martin, of Ter. Nello, of Yuma, spent Monday France, are visiting Mrs. Boone's and Tuesday in Huntingdon, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jones, guests of Mrs. Ada Fraywick.

WELCOME to the House of Jewelry

THE Latching is out for you—the gates are open. A royal welcome awaits you at this store of dependable merchandise. As for the Store—the town is proud of it. Nothing anywhere, in any large metropolis, holds finer stock—nor a greater variety.

It is such a mistake to suppose that you must go to a great city, to see all there is to see in jewelry, cut glass, silver, watches, rings, diamonds, etc. This is certainly not true. We are in touch with every important market. We get the smart new things as soon as they appear.

But there is one vital difference. This store has your personal interest at heart. We either know you personally or we know of you. We belong to your town and your community. Friendly interest enters into every business transaction. That can't be true of the large store in the far city.

It was this spirit of co-partnership that impelled us to reach out for guaranteed lines—as, for example, the W. W. W. Gem Set Rings. The selection is wide and the designs of great beauty.

This is YOUR store—encourage it—help it grow.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There's the same economy in using the one-ton Ford truck that there is in using the Ford car—only the larger carrying power of the truck commends it particularly to farmers, and other business men. The famous Model T motor assures reliable power, and lots of it; the manganese kroze worm drive makes certain the use of all that power; the three-point suspension gives flexibility, and vandiam steel strength. Price, without body, $550 f.o.b. Detroit.
